

Doctor C E R F,

(Lately arrived from FRANCE)

No. 6, BAILEY'S-PLACE, Little Tower-Hill,

Near the Victualling-Office, LONDON:

(Please to take Notice of the Number, as there are two Shops in the same Place.)

WELL known for curing all Kinds of Disorders, both internal and external; likewise the SECRET DISEASE, let it be ever so inveterate, without any Hindrance of Business, and in as short a Time as the Case will admit of.

Trusses to be disposed of for all Kinds of Ruptures.

Any Person that cannot attend personally, by sending their Morning Urine, may be faithfully informed of their Complaint, and receive such Medicines as are proper for their Disorder, on the most reasonable Terms.

Advice given by a Physician every Afternoon, from Four till Six o'Clock; and to the Poor (Gratis) from Seven till Eight in the Morning.

The Doctor may be spoke with in all Languages; and Letters (Post-paid) will be immediately attended to.

Likewise speedily cures all Sorts of Corns, without the least Pain, so that the Patient may walk or jump about again in a few Minutes.

Also cures the most violent Tooth-ach in an Instant. Draws Teeth, preserves those that are decaying, and puts in artificial ones in the most perfect Manner.

N. B. A Back Door with a Latch, by which Persons may let themselves into the Surgery, behind the House.

††† Captains may be supplied with Medicine Chests on the most reasonable Terms.

17 01 81